Dance Proms 2014

*A successful fourth year performance
at the Royal Albert Hall*

This year's Dance Proms was bigger and better than ever, with more than 420 dancers taking to the iconic stage. Sunday 2nd November was an exciting day for all involved; 24 acts from schools not only in the UK but from Israel, Malta and Spain took part. This year also saw five special guest acts perform a range of dance genres, from tap to ballet, ballroom to national. Congratulations to all the schools and guest act performers who danced so well.

Dance Proms welcomed major sponsor Capezio this year, as well as new patrons Lukas McFarlane, Kimberley Wyatt and Strictly's Kevin Clifton and Karen Hauer. They were joined by previous years' patrons; Darcey Bussell CBE, Anton du Beke, Matt Flint, Len Goodman, Chris Hollins, Arlene Phillips CBE, Lisa Riley, Angela Rippon OBE and Wayne Sleep OBE. The night was graciously hosted by dancer and former Strictly star Ian Waite.

The Dance Proms team would like to thank everyone who was involved in Dance Proms this year. The support of the audience, sponsors, patrons, the volunteers, the crew, the schools, the guest acts and the partner organisations is vital to the success of the project. We know how much dedication and practice is put towards Dance Proms, congratulations and thank you.

We hope to see you again next year and hopefully some new faces too! Make sure to save the date for Dance Proms 2015 - Sunday 15th November at the Royal Albert Hall.

Join us next year - on stage!

If you or one of your teachers is a member of the ISTD, IDTA or RAD we could see you on stage at the Royal Albert Hall next year. Registration opens in early 2015 so visit www.danceproms.co.uk to find out how to enter and keep up to date via the Dance Proms Twitter feed and Facebook page. You can also sign up for regular news updates with the Dance Proms newsletter, join the mailing list via the Dance Proms website. Whatever your dance style and wherever you are in the world, we would love to see you take part in Dance Proms next year!
